Family Connection– John 15:9-17 Jesus commands his disciples to love one another.

Jesus did. Can you do it, we have many opportunities to show love in action. Each time we respond to a task to tend to the needs of another, we show ourselves to be on the path to following the example of love shown to us by Jesus. Sometimes the sacrifices we are called upon to make for others are small. But these small choices to love and to serve others prepare us for the larger choices and sacrifices that we may be called upon to make. If we are people who have practiced showing our love for others with generosity, we will also be people who are willing to lay down our lives for those we love.

As you gather as a family, talk about the meaning of the word generosity. Ask each family member to describe an action that shows generosity. To be generous is to give freely to others without counting the cost. Recall that generosity is one of the Fruits of the Holy Spirit. Introduce today's Gospel reading by saying that Jesus taught us to be generous in showing our love for one another. Read together today's Gospel, John 15:9-17. What examples did Jesus give to us that show this kind of love? (washing his disciples' feet; accepting death on the cross) Jesus helps us to show this kind of love to others. In today's Gospel, Jesus promised that God will give us whatever we ask for. One of the things we can ask for from God is a generous spirit so that we can love others as Jesus did. Conclude in prayer together by praying Saint Ignatius of Loyola's Prayer for Generosity.

The Annual Baby Bottle Project Sponsored by the Effingham Family Life Pregnancy Center, will begin on Mother's Day and end on Father's Day. We ask you to take a bottle home, toss in your loose change, and return the bottle Father's Day. This project helps the Family Life Center to provide much needed supplies for the community and for the Moms' and Dadz' programs. Among other services offered to the clients are pregnancy test, limited ultrasound and educational resources on prenatal development and care, adoption, post-birth and parenting.

Church Decorating/Environment Committee- This committee would be in charge of decorating the church for the liturgical seasons. Christy Brown has volunteered to be the chair of this committee. If you would like to help, please contact her at 217-273-5177.

St. Anthony Hospital Masses have resumed

- Tuesday - Friday: 11:30am
- Saturdays: 7:30pm
- Sunday: 11:30am

Those coming to weekday Mass should use the hospital's front entrance on Maple Street. Those coming for Saturday or Sunday Mass must enter through the hospital's emergency room entrances on Mulberry St.

The Monthly Prayer Vigil for Life will be held at St. Aloysius Church, Bishop Creek, on Monday, May 17. Praying the scriptural rosary will begin at 6:00pm. Fr. Frank Folino will be the celebrant for the 6:30pm Mass. The business meeting will follow in the parish hall. All are welcome.

Happy Mother's Day.

A society without mothers would be a dehumanized society, for mothers are always, even in the worst moments, witnesses of tenderness, dedication and moral strength.

–Pope Francis, January 7, 2015

Fr. Al's Ramblings

Every year at this time I try to find some words to impart about Mothers, particularly mine. Last week I presented in my rambling the origin of Mother's Day and what a wonderful gift it is to all of us. I promised I would mention my own mother in this week's edition and here I present my reflection of my dear mother.

I am always reminiscent of the sacrifices my mother made for me and my nine siblings as well as the countless other people who somehow managed to meander into our lives.

You see, my mother was so full of love for humankind that she never met a stranger, she never judged our friends or the "strays" we drug home for dinner like an orphaned puppy. As I reflect back to those days I just wonder how in the world that little woman, of about four feet nine, could lovingly manage such a challenge; she worked almost around the clock to provide for us and yet still patiently answered our middle of the night terrors from bad dreams, thunderstorms, thirst (which usually amounted to just a swallow) or the occasional "hold me mommy", which she dutifully did until we fell fast asleep.

I could ramble on and on with this but I think you get the picture; Mothers are such a blessed gift. Suffice to say when people ask about my Mother I always respond "she is a saint" and I say that with sincere conviction!

So Blessed by You, Mom

A mother who always cares,
A mother who's always there.

A mother who always prays,
A mother who always stays.

When things get rough,
When life gets tough,

When all is just too much to bear,
God's Word she shares.

God's light she shines.

So blessed God made this mother mine.

We as Catholic Christians recognize also our spiritual mother: The Blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We venerate Mary as the mother of us all and the perfect example of what mothers do for all their children. The above poem exemplifies both our Spiritual and Paternal Mothers. I pray it brings you peace and joy as you reflect on your own mothers during "...the month of our mother, the blessed and beautiful May".

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Al

Dive Deep - Running for a Higher Purpose: Eight steps to spiritual and physical fitness – that's the theme of Bishop Thomas John Paprocki's new book, Running for a Higher Purpose, now available for purchase at holigoalie.net. Perfect for runners, Bishop Paprocki joins Dive Deep to explain why the book may be exactly what you need to give your spiritual and physical well-being a boost. Go to dio.org/podcast to listen and to register to win a free, signed copy of the book!

Dive Deep - No more Communion blessings. What now? A January instruction by Bishop Paprocki instituted no more communion blessings across the diocese. Dive Deep tells you what happens now when someone approaches the priest with their arms crossed and why hearing these certain words, "Receive Christ in your heart," will make a big impact.
