It has been brought to my attention, several times, that I make mistakes on the ministry list and other areas of the bulletin. I do apologize. I do the best that I can. However, if anyone would like to compile next month's ministry list because you are not happy with the job I am doing, feel free to send me your email address and I will email you the master list and you can email me back next month's ministry list and I will gladly copy and paste it into the bulletin for you. I will need the list by June 21. Thank you.

Family Connection- Mark 4:26–34 The reign of God is like a mustard seed.

Church documents call the Christian family the “domestic church.” This is both a compliment and a call to commitment. Because the family is a community formed in love and dedicated to the physical and spiritual growth of its members, it is a miniature version of the Kingdom of God on earth. This Sunday’s Gospel Reading, Mark 4:26–34, consists of two parables that Jesus used to help us discern the mystery of the Kingdom of God. The beginning of the kingdom is compared to a tiny seed that over time matures and ripens. Many of the things we do within the family seem insignificant. They are part of our daily activity and attract little attention. Yet they show our love and concern for one another. According to the Gospel, it’s these small things that yield big results, acting as significant contributions to the growth of God’s kingdom on earth. The growth of the seed illustrates the nature and the results of a strong faith.

Read aloud together the Gospel of Mark 4:26–34. Consider how your family’s concerns reflect the Church’s concerns for those members who are poor, forgotten, hungry, ill, shunned, or lonely. Together think of a specific action that you can do to assist a person in your extended family, neighborhood, or parish. Now pray together the Lord’s Prayer, pausing briefly to consider the import of the words “thy kingdom come.” Each evening this week as you gather for supper, share with one another the simple acts of love you witnessed within the family that day.

The Annual Baby Bottle Project is wrapping up on Father’s Day, next weekend. Please return your baby bottles to the basket ASAP. Thanks in advance for your generous contributions.

Blessed Michael McGivney Prayer Hour

Council 665 will host a Blessed Michael McGivney Prayer Hour on June 16th at 6:30 PM at the Effingham Event Center. Come celebrate the beatification of Blessed Michael McGivney through a special prayer hour open to the whole community. Built around the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, the prayer hour features writings from recent popes and reflections on the life of Blessed Michael McGivney. The prayer hour is a way to invoke the blessed founder of the Knights of Columbus and to be inspired by his life and legacy.

Fr. Al’s Ramblings

My Dear Children of God,

Just a few weeks ago we celebrated Mother’s Day and next week-end we will celebrate Father’s Day. How privileged we are to have these special days set aside for the recognition/remembrance of our parents. I can’t help but compare my own parents to Mary and Joseph, parents of our Lord. I love the Biblical accounting of their raising the perfect child. And no! I was in no way a perfect child.

I found this writing a few years ago and I like to reprint it on Father’s Day as a tribute to my Father. Fortunately I have the vision of hindsight to witness these attributes of the man who gave my siblings and I a great Catholic Christian life:

To my child from your dad,

My child, as a man I did not carry you for nine months
But from the moment I held you in my arms
I was overcome by feelings of tenderness for you
I remember as if it were just yesterday when I first looked into your eyes and I touched your tiny fingers
My heart melted at your cute yawn
The joy I felt when you arrived
Oh, the day I became a father
Memories I will cherish forever

From that moment all I knew is that I want to be there for you to:

- Protect you
- Provide for you
- Be a friend to you

Most of all to show you how much I love you
For you my child I will be a man who shows his tender emotions

I remember your first step
You are no longer a baby or toddler for me to cuddle you and rest you upon my chest
But my child, my arms are always open wide to hug you
A pat on your back, a brief head rub
These are just a few ways I show my affection for you
I love when we sit and talk with each other
When we share a meal
When we make time to bond as father and child
Even when I discipline you, my child, it is because I want what is best for you
I admire your uniqueness
I am proud of you
Children are a blessing from the Lord
I am a blessed to be your father
My daily prayer is for God to grant me long life to see you all grown up, become a parent yourself
So, you understand how I deeply I love you
This is just a little love note from me to you
My dearest child, " I love you"
