Family Connection- Mark 5:21-43

There are many ways in which we can compare the request for healing made by Jairus and the request of the woman with the hemorrhage. One comparison helps us think about prayer. Jairus asked Jesus for healing on his daughter’s behalf; the woman with the hemorrhage had no one to speak for her and bravely approached Jesus on her own initiative. In our prayers, we do both. We intercede for others’ needs, and we also courageously express our own needs to God. We find hope in Jesus’ response to both of these people, who sought him out in their hour of need. As you gather as a family, talk about some of the things you have prayed for this week. Notice that some of your prayers may have been for other people, and some of your prayers may have been for your own needs. In today’s Gospel we find encouragement for both kinds of prayer. Read together today’s Gospel, Mark 5:21-43. Talk about the similarities and differences between the two people who presented their needs to Jesus in this Gospel. Notice that both people received the healing they sought from Jesus. We want to pray for the needs of others and for our own needs with as much faith and hope as Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage did. Pray together in thanks and praise to God, who hears our needs and answers them, by praying today’s psalm, Psalm 30.

Fr. Al's Ramblings

Be at Peace with God!

Saint Paul reminds us of the whole business of our justification and salvation as having peace with God. Being in right relationship with God our Father is the whole point of the Christian life. Paul is quick to add that the way to achieve this is through Christ.

Our goal is to be at one with God. This is attained through Christ in whom we have access to the Father. Our hope is to share in God's glory. This hope is nourished by our faith in Christ which justifies us.

Our hope to share in God's glory in the future is not based on wishful thinking. It is based on the fact that even now God has already given us the assurance of what is to come by pouring out the love of God into our hearts.

This is where the Holy Spirit becomes the guiding principle of our lives. Through the Spirit God's love is poured into our hearts, through the Spirit we learn to love God and our neighbor as Jesus teaches us. As we journey through Ordinary Time and to the daily challenges of living the Christian life, let us know that we are not alone in the struggle. God the Father is on our side, Jesus Christ the Son of God is on our side, the Holy Spirit the Power of God Most High is on our side. Now this is hope, the is hope that never disappoints.

Christian life is, therefore, not possible without a relationship with God the Father, His Son Jesus Christ, and his Holy Spirit.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Al
