"Feed the Priest" - "Food for Padre"

Two years ago in May our parish began a "Meal Plan" for Father Allen.

Several ladies (or gentlemen) of the parish take turns (approximately once every 3-4 months) providing a home cooked meal on Friday evening for Father.

It is very simple with delivery on Fridays about 5:30 pm, consisting of whatever you fix at home, delivering in disposable containers. He enjoys all kinds of food – except liver and some fish. He really enjoys dessert! :)

We are hoping to add people to our list and hope/plan to incorporate the Green Creek parish this fall. If you are available to be added to our list of "cooks", please contact Howard Dust at 217-663-2395. Thank you for helping!

Gospel reflection questions
July 10 — Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lk 10:25-37: Jesus loved to tell stories. Today we hear Jesus’ answer when the lawyer asks him what must be done to have everlasting life. Jesus tells him the story of the good Samaritan, answering the question: Who is my neighbor — everyone in need or just the people I know or the people like me?

In today’s world, who are our neighbors? How do we love our neighbors today? Is it possible to love God without loving your neighbor?

Springfield Right to life and Two Hearts

If you are interested in hosting a table at this event, please contact the office at (217) 523-2700 or (217) 670-1115 to make your reservation and then plan to attend a (light) luncheon meeting on July 23 from 11:30-1:00. This luncheon will be held at the Catholic Pastoral Center at 1615 West Washington Street.

32nd Annual Family Camp, for those (and their families/friends) with intellectual and/or physical disabilities, will be held Sept. 24-25, 2022, at Lake Williamson Christian Center, Carlinville. Registration forms are available at www.sheff.org or contact Elaine Vonderheide, at 217.342.2718. Registration is due August 13. Family Camp is made possible through the support of our local Knights of Columbus Councils, the Diocese of Springfield in IL, and Sacred Heart Parish.

Fr. Al's Rambling... I recently was asked if Jesus Christ was my personal Savior, “Well, actually I like to share Him!”

Salvation in Jesus Christ is a gift of our God to the entire human race, not just to me, but to everyone. Recall, as Jesus went about from place to place, town to town, he likewise sent his disciples to announce that the kingdom of God is at hand. The Lord continues to call us in our respective vocations to do likewise.

We might ask, why did the Lord send his disciples out two by two, rather than all alone? Certainly, more ground would be covered, and towns visited if the seventy-two disciples were “all alone” doing God’s work. With two or more bearing witness, though, there is always a better possibility of giving testimony to the meaning of love and unity among the disciples. This reality becomes a clear form of teaching. One who is “all alone” cannot generally have the same impact.

We are a community of believers composed of individuals, yes, but most importantly, we form an “ecclesia,” a church or holy community, constantly called to move forward together under the guidance and inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

Presence and commitment are vital to every follower of Christ, and most often that simply means bringing Christ to those with whom we live and work, day in and day out, year after year. So, we do not necessarily need to go to the ends of the earth in order to be good and effective followers of Christ.

Jesus is clear that the corporal works of mercy, which include feeding the hungry, tending the sick, and clothing the naked, are vital aspects of the Christian apostolate.

The message of the kingdom of God is at once simple and at the same time very demanding. All of the preaching of Jesus was and is centered on the theme of the kingdom of God, which includes that essential message of redemption in Jesus Christ through the shedding of his blood.

Jesus’ mission did not end with an announcement only, but with the actual establishment of God’s kingdom in the risen Christ, extending to all times, places, and peoples.

Each of us should feel the urgency to act on the call from God to “go forth” as ambassadors of Jesus Christ. We are not only to announce but also to live the reality of the kingdom of God with all its demands and rewards, both in this life and in the next.

As we continue to work toward being intentional disciples, we best proclaim the Gospel by our lives, with simple and few words that flow from a direct, sincere, concise, and humble response to Jesus’ message in the present time.

god Bless.
Fr. Al
