EUCHARIST REVIVAL

Jesus has made Himself the Bread of Life to give us life. Night and day, He is there. If you really want to grow in love, come back to the Eucharist, come back to that Adoration.
 ST. MOTHER TERESA OF CALCUTTA

I am excited about the Eucharistic Revival as an opportunity for the members of Christ's Body, the Church, to become "flesh for the life of the world" (Jn. 6:51). When Our Lord declared that "the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world" (Jn. 6:51), he gave us words for the mystery-reality of his Real Presence in the Eucharist. His Presence in the Eucharist is "bread" which nourishes, "life" which sustains us, and is for "the world" he created and loves.

While his "Bread of Life discourse" in John 6 helps us understand Our Lord's Presence in the Eucharist, his institution of the Blessed Sacrament at the Last Supper instructs our participation and even imitation of this Presence. In his "other" great act at the Last Supper, washing his disciples' feet, Jesus presents himself as "among you as the one who serves" (Lk. 22:27) and commands that "as I have done for you, you should also do" (Jn. 13:15). The institution narratives recounting Jesus' direction to "Do this in remembrance of me" (Lk 22:19; 1 Cor. 11:24) certainly pertain directly to the celebration of the Eucharistic sacrifice of the Mass. These words also point us to Christ's model of service. His "do this" compels us to "become what you receive" and "imitate what you celebrate" by giving our lives, our flesh, for the life of the world. Sr. Marie Benedict Elliott, F.S.E.

 Lk 13:22-30: When Jesus is asked if only a few people will be saved, he answers indirectly. He says that it will take more than knowing him or his teachings to get into the master's house. Jesus suggests that they might be surprised to see who will be at the table of the Lord. In fact, "some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

This Gospel talks about people from the east and the west, from the north and south. What do you think that means? Does it say something about God's love?

SonRise Men's Group

We want to invite all the men of the parish to join us on Friday mornings for a new year of TMIY unlike any other. It is different than all of their other programs and is made up of TEN impressive Catholic speakers.

Each week is unique. If you have never attended at all, or simply came to a couple of meetings, you can jump into this new content without any issue.

In joining us this fall, you will be one of 40 – 50 men locally, and thousands of men growing through the TMIY program this year across the country. You will be joining a band of brothers that will support you on your journey. It is a powerful thing when you gather with a group of men striving to do right by God and their families.

I know life is busy, but we just ask that you give yourself a chance to check it out. The program is starting again on Friday, September 9 and is held every Friday at 6:30am in the Parish Center at St. Anthony's. Breakfast starts at 6:10am and we will make sure to have you out by 7:30AM. The content and the fellowship can be truly transformational!
